

Habakkuk

This book comes after the book of _____ in the _____ Testament.

The book of Habakkuk is categorized as one of the
_____.

What is a prophet?

The usual style of the books of prophets is for the prophet to relay the message from God to the people. The book of Habakkuk does not follow this normal style. The book of Habakkuk is a conversation between the prophet Habakkuk and
_____.

Habakkuk has questions and God has answers.

Habakkuk 1:1-5 "O Lord, how long shall I _____

And thou wilt not _____?" Habakkuk (huh BAK kuk) had told God about all the bad things that were happening in Judah, but nothing seemed to change. Was God even listening? The bad guys always win. It wasn't supposed to be this way. God was listening. He heard Habakkuk's prayers, and He knew what was happening. God answered, "I will _____ a work which ye will not _____, though it be told you."

God was raising up enemies. The _____ were going to come and take God's people captive. God's people would be punished for their sin—but the people of Babylon were evil too. In fact, they were even more evil than the people of Judah! This bothered Habakkuk. He wanted to know why the Lord would do it this way.

Habakkuk 2:1 Habakkuk waited for an answer. "I will stand upon my _____, and set me upon the _____, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved."

Habakkuk 2:2 "And the Lord answered me, and said, _____ the _____....."

Habakkuk 3:17-18. "Although the fig tree shall not _____, neither shall the fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail and the fields shall yield not meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no _____ in the stall: Yet I will _____ in the _____, I will _____ in the God of my _____.

Sometimes we see all the bad things that people do and we get sad and confused. But like Habakkuk, we need to trust God and listen for his answer
